

LOVE NOTES

I can only give you what is mine to give the beauty of this moment without a promise of all the tomorrows we may live

I can't write about what you are I can only write what I feel about you what you are
is much too
ENORMOUS
to put on any piece of paper

On any occasion
Love
is the celebration

A friend is someone you carry around in your heart

21 pages of loving thoughts followed by questions for the reader to answer for themselves or another as: just thinking about you makes it easier to _____. My ten favorite things about you are _____ I want to wish you a happy _____
